

WACHUKA GATHIGIA NJOROGE (Mrs.)

December 2014

Personal Information

Nationality: Kenyan

Working Experience

Ph.D. Research topic “Assessment of the Quality of Medical Diagnostic Laboratory Service Provision in Kenya” .Defended the thesis and Aim to graduate this year.

Position 1992 – date: Assistant Lecturer, Medical Laboratory Science Department.
Kenyatta University

Area of Specialization: Laboratory Management

I have vast teaching experience and have taught various units in the Department of Medical Laboratory Science, the Biochemistry and Biotechnology Department, Department of Nutrition and Dietetics, Department of Gender and Development Studies and Department of Nursing:

Units I have taught include:

- ☐ Laboratory Management Ethics and Law
- ☐ Bioethics
- ☐ Clinical Biochemistry
- ☐ First Aid
- ☐ Community health
- ☐ Epidemiology
- ☐ Pharmacognosy
- ☐ Immunology
- ☐ HIV/AIDs and Drug Abuse

Responsibilities include:

Academic Advisor 4th Year MLS Students

Student Mentor in the Mentoring program

Previous experience

1991 –1992: Employed by Teachers Service Commission.

Kenya Polytechnic, Nairobi.

Seminars and Conferences Attended

March 2014 Facilitator in HIV Consolidation Workshop KU/UON

May 2013 Teaching Methodology Centre of Teaching Excellence and Evaluation

April 2008 Workshop on Guidelines for Training of Medical Laboratory

Technicians/Technologists/Scientists in Kenya

Education

October 1988: Brunel University of West London Master of Science,

Applied Immunology

July 1983: Bristol Polytechnic, England Higher Diploma, Medical

Laboratory Sciences, Clinical Chemistry

December 1979: Tumum Tumum Girls High School - EAACE

1972 –1975: Kenya High School - EACE

1964 – 1971: Nairobi Primary School - CPE

Hobbies and Interests

Acting, Drama and Music

I am a Mizizi- plug in facilitator at the Nairobi Chapel